November 10—October 24-27—

Upcoming Events

- "Teaching with Primary Sources—MTSU" Conference, November 10, Murfreesboro, TN | 37132 US
- "Slavery, Resistance and Community: The 5th Annual Slave Dwelling Day," October 24-27, Brownsville, TN
- "Empowering the Voice: The Importance of Teaching with Primary Sources," October 24-27, Brownsville, TN
- "Teaching with Primary Sources—MTSU," October 24-27, Brownsville, TN
- "Teaching with Primary Sources—MTSU," October 24-27, Brownsville, TN

For more information, visit the event pages on the MTSU website.

Leaders

Future Leaders: CHP May 2018 Grads!

Congratulations to our recent graduates (clockwise from top left): Kate Hatfield, Ethan White, Kira Duke, Tony Nichelson, Savannah Grandey, Mathieu Tucker, Jimmie Tucker, Tiffany Momon, and Mathieu Tucker. These students are now part of MTSU's next generation of leaders.

For more information about MTSU's leadership programs, visit the Center for History and Public Service website.

Historic Preservation

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educator

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.

The Center was also proud to assist the Orange Mound community in setting up a heritage room at Melrose High School that includes a newsletter and collections of historic photos, all of which commemorate the neighborhood's rich heritage. The heritage room will be collaboratively maintained by educators, community members, and high school students.